

CAN YOU TELL WHICH PRODUCT IS COUNTERFEIT?

Unfortunately, neither could our client. Because this client was sold counterfeit heartworm prevention by an online pharmacy, their pet now has heartworm disease.

We respect your right to purchase medications elsewhere, but use caution when purchasing from sources online. If you ever doubt the validity of a medication, or an online pharmacy; we are always happy to help guide you to the proper resources to answer those questions.

Please do not hesitate to come to us with any questions. Our highest priority is ensuring the safety of your pet.
